To provide equal employment and advancement opportunities for all individuals, employment decisions at the Company are based on merit, qualifications, and abilities. The Company does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions), national origin, ancestry, age, disability, family care status, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.

The Company makes reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with known disabilities unless doing so would result in an undue hardship to the Company. The Company prohibits harassment of any individual on the basis of any characteristic listed above. For information regarding the Company's internal policies for addressing complaints of harassment, please refer to the Company's Policy Against Harassment.

This policy governs all aspects of employment, including selection, job assignment, compensation, discipline, termination, and access to benefits and training.

Any employees with questions or concerns about any type of discrimination in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their immediate supervisor, any other person in management, up to and including the President. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal, harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion or discrimination because they: (1) file a complaint with the Company or with federal, state, or local agencies; (2) assist or participate in any investigation, compliance review, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of any federal, state or local equal employment opportunity or affirmative action statute; (3) oppose any act or practice made unlawful by federal, state or local law requiring equal employment opportunity or affirmative action; or (4) exercise any other employment right protected by federal, state or local law or its implementing regulations.

The Company maintains an audit and reporting system to determine overall compliance with its equal employment opportunity mandates and to respond to any specific complaints applicants or employees file with the Company's equal employment opportunity office. Overall responsibility for the implementation of the Company's equal employment opportunity programs and for affirmative action compliance activities is assigned to Cynthia Collins, Vice President, Strategic Operations.

disabilities and for Vietnam Era Veterans for job vacancies filled either by hiring or promotion, and for all training opportunities offered or available.

The Company ensures that its personnel processes do not stereotype disabled persons or Vietnam Era Veterans in a manner which limits their access to jobs for which they are qualified.

The Company also periodically reviews its processes and makes any necessary modifications to ensure that these obligations are carried out. The following procedures facilitate a review of the implementation of these requirements are drawn from, among other things, Appendix C of OFCCP's Regulations implementing Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

C. PHYSICAL AND MENTAL QUALIFICATIONS
41 C.F.R. §§ 60-741.44(c);-250.6(c)

The Company reviews all physical and mental job qualification requirements with line management and supervisors to ensure that, to the extent qualification requirements screen out or tend to screen out qualified disabled individuals or Vietnam Era Veterans, they are job-related and consistent with business necessity and the safe performance of the job. The schedule of the review is as new job qualification requirements are established;

To the extent that physical or mental job qualification requirements screen out or tend to screen out qualified disabled individuals or Vietnam Era Veterans in the selection of employees or applicants for employment or other changes in employment status such as promotion or training, the Company assures that the requirements are related to the specific job(s) for which the individual is being considered and are job-related and consistent with business necessity and the safe performance of the job.
